Percheron Norman Stallion

BELLVIEW.

Brilliam was fosled in 1877, imported 1877, hought by J. F. Delay 1878, and now owned by him (1882), at Iola, Allen county, Kanasa, Heliview is five years old this spring, and will make the spason commencing March 19th, 1882, at Delay's barn, near his two-story white house, with green window bilinds, just one saile northeast of Iola, on the hill.

Bellview is 15 hands high and weizhs 1500 pounds, is a dark dapple gray, with a dark, heavy muse and tail. He is a fast walker with a good knee action when trotting, and for style and action has but few squals. For draft shock he is unsurpassed, as the above cut will demonstrate. He is low down, thick set, with heavy shoulders, a handsome, short, strong back and loins, with long hips and quarters well ballt down, with the largest kind of musche, with broad, thio, fist legs and not too much hair on them, with the very best of feet. He must be seen to be appreciated. Please call and see him before breeding to other horses, and I am sure he will please you, as he is the only imported Norman stalling in Allen county. S. N. DELAP.

MANHOOD

How Lost, How Restored!

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure of Spermatorrhea, chief and the radical cure of Spermatorrhea, seminal Losses, Impostency, Meutal and Physical Incapacity, Impostency and Fits, induced by self-indulzence or sexual extravagance, &c. The celebrated suffor, in this simirable Essay; slearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cureu; pointing out a mode of cure at once almiste, certain and effectual; by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

Truly Valuable.

Bone Wonders.

"Your GOLDEN BALSAM is a truly valuable medicine. It has done wonders for me. I had a severe spell of pneumonia and was confined to my room for several months. When I got able to be out of doors, my lungs were very weak, with general prostration of my system, and a very sore throat and hard cough. You gave me a bottle of your BALSAM on trial, which very much relieved my throat and cough, and after taking two bottles I was able to attend to my business. My lungs have always been weak. My father, mother, and all of my brothers and only sister, and most of my near relatives, died with Consumption. I have taken five bottle of your Golden BALSAM, and can cheerfully recommend it to all suffering with hard cough, or weak lungs.—[Simeon Fawcett, Kansas City, Mo

A History Worth Having. The new and charmlagly beautiful, as well as wonderfully chesp edition of "Green's Larger History of the English People" which is being published by the Useful Knowledge Publishing Co., New York, is most deservedly finding a place in thousands of home libraries. No history is better worthy of a place in even the smallest library, and, though formerly published by the Harper's at $10, it is now easily within the reach of any one, the prices varying in the several forms, from 65 cts. in one volume, within the reach of any one, the prices varying in the several forms, from 65 cts in one volume, octave, Utility binding, to $2.35 in 5 vols. Elective stition, half Russia binding. It also forms a part of the farst volume of the Cyclopedia of History which is shortly to appear. These editions are for sale by enterprising booksellers, and club agents and canvasers are wanted every—where by the publishers, to whom are offere very unusual inducements and facilities.

The Domestic Monthly.

With the May number, this favorite maga-sines announce a reduction in prices from $1.50 to $1. The regular premium, one dollar's worth of "Domestic" Fashions, remain the same. The general make-up is new, literary matter alternating with illustrated fashion articles throughout.

The number opens with a charming poem by Paul Pastaor, one of the rising poets of the day. This is succeeded by the first chapters of a new serial story, which will run through severa numbers of the monthly.

An illustrated article on the "Neglect of Children," Is written by EHen E. Dickenson, and will be found very suggestive in its expose of the thoughtlessness to which social excesses lead to their devotees.

The new departure will undoubtedly increase the already wide popularity of the "Domestic." The Domestic Mosthly is published; at 83 Broadway, New York, corner 14th, St., at $1, with $1 worth of "Domestic" Fashions to each subscriber. Single copies, 10 cents.

Tne New Light of Asia.

"The Iliad of India" some call it, and others liken it to Milton's "Paradise Lost." Whatever terms may be used to discribe it, Edwin Arnold's remarkable poem, "The Light of Asia," has certainly won a place among the 25,000 plants. The best selection in the west.
